Anti Ragging Committee

Maulana Azad College is a premier government co-educational institution located at the centre of Kolkata with a rich heritage of imparting higher education for nearly 100 years to students (approximately 2500 in number) of diverse section affiliated to different caste, creed and community and socio-economic background, 50% of which comprises the girl students. The college has an age-old hostel, known as the Baker Government Hostel situated nearby which accommodates nearly 500 boarders.

The Anti-Ragging Committee of Maulana Azad college is a supervisory and advisory committee that helps in preserving a ragging-free culture in the campus. It aims to create a conducive academic atmosphere for the newly joined students with a clear message that the college pursues a zero-tolerance policy towards any act of ragging both in the college and hostel premises.

As per the guidelines of the UGC establishment of an Anti-ragging Cell in the college campus is compulsory under the Act of 1956, which is modified as UGC regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions 2009 in the mechanisms of higher educational institutions where ragging is defined as any disorderly conduct, whether by words spoken or written or by an act of teasing, treating a fresher or any junior student or behaving rudely or in an intimidating manner. Indulging in a rowdy or undisciplined activity that causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or junior student; asking students to do any act or perform something that such students will not do normally and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or junior student- are all taken to be a case of ragging.

➤ On the first day of the class, teachers (mentors) were asked to bring up the subject of harassment and ragging with the students (mentees) and to advise them to become more aware of the dangers of ragging. Extended conversations between mentors and mentees were arranged to disseminate the anti-ragging sentiment within the student body. All departments' faculty members counseled senior students to watch out for juniors in order to maintain the college campus completely ragging free. They were also advised to submit their recommendations to the committee.

➤ Anti-Ragging declaration/undertaking in the prescribed format is procured from the student and corresponding guardian during the time of admission.

➤ If any unpleasant things happened to them, students were recommended to file a written complaint through online in the link provided in the college website, or they could get in touch with their individual departmental head.

They were also advised to submit their recommendations to the committee.
- A banner containing the contact numbers of the two joint conveners has been hung in the college courtyard as well as in the college hostel. The same has been uploaded on the college website. It will be beneficial for the freshers if any of them experiences any sort of abuse by the senior students of this college. It also warns the senior students about the consequences of any abusive activities towards their juniors.
- Anti-Ragging declaration/undertaking in the prescribed format is procured from the student and corresponding guardian during the time of admission.
- If any unpleasant things happened to them, students were recommended to file a written complaint through online in the link provided in the college website, or they could get in touch with their individual departmental head.
- Due to COVID pandemic situation, College was closed by the orders of both central & state governments. During the period of lock down all communications with the students were made through online. The College regularly monitors their wellness through online mode and occasionally arranged counseling sessions for them.
