 - a) The IQAC Coordinator has already submitted the SSR.
 - b) Regular AQRs have been submitted.
 - c) IQAC functioning is satisfactory.

The IQAC committee members, Maulana Azad College have made the following suggestions:

1. NAAC Coordinator and IQAC coordinator must be separate persons.

3. Team spirit must be built among the faculty members of the college.
4. Strategies of planning must be devised and inculcated.
5. Positive energy must be infused in the college to prepare for NAAC Visit.
6. All Data must be properly and comprehensively arranged, along with supporting documents.
7. The College must organize Students' seminars by individual departments or through the collaboration two or more departments.
8. Teachers must be encouraged to apply for funded research projects.
9. College authority can appeal to NAAC for initiating hand-holding exercises as support system to the College. An application can also be made to NAAC to pay a visit before final application for verifying all documents. This would be useful for smooth uploading during DVV.
10. Students' satisfaction survey must be strengthened.
11. The publication of an article in a Journal would be evaluated on the basis of four conditions:
 - a) The year of the publication of the article must correspond with the UGC list of approved Journals in that same year.
 - b) If the Journal has been removed from the UGC list later on (after the publication of the article), the article would still be considered valid.
 - c) If the Journal has been included in the UGC list after the publication of the article, then the article would not be considered valid.
 - d) The impact factor of the Journal must be verified and validated through Thomas Reuters and Scopus.
12. Detailed pass-out and progression reports from individual students should be procured.
13. Departmental Heads must be given more priority regarding collection of data of student progression and placement records.
14. Attention should be made regarding formulation of Alumni Association (should be registered) and there should be at least one activity organized in a year by the Alumni Association.
